

It is vital that the noise pollution caused by aircraft both above AND below the 75,000 lb. cutoff be reduced as much as is possible. Protection of the aircraft industry must be fairly balanced with the needs of the thousands of citizens who live in close range of airfields that have become the homes of ever larger, more frequent and louder aircraft.